JUDY GARDINER—Editor

With our school years now at their close, it is only right that we should be looking forward to the life ahead of us. However, it is also fitting that we should be looking back on the many interesting experiences that we have had. There were brief moments of glory for some of us in sports, musicals, and dramatic productions. There were also the common, everyday things that everyone had shared in, freshman and senior alike. All these events combined together to make the pattern of life that we have followed for so long and that we shall never experience again.

While turning these pages in years to come, we hope that you will remember the old faces and the old times. If you do, then we will have succeeded in reaching the goal that we set.

We, the members of the 1963 Aurora staff, hope that you will always treasure the memories stored between these covers, and always look back on your school years as constructive, valuable, and rewarding.

Dedication

No one has been more instrumental in making the Aurora a success these past three years than Mrs. Eleanor Smith. As yearbook advisor both here at Dighton-Rehoboth and at the old Dighton High, Mrs. Smith has started many staffs off on the right foot and continued to be indispensable to them through the years.

As a teacher, Mrs. Smith has served for forty-two years. Her devotion to her chosen profession and to all young people is clearly evidenced by this.

We the members of the 1963 Aurora staff take great pride in dedicating this edition of the Aurora to Mrs. Eleanor Smith.

Appreciation

We, the Class of 1963, wish to express our thanks to Mrs. Helena Kennedy, who has been working with the commercial students at old Dighton High and Dighton-Rehoboth Regional High School for ten years. Through Mrs. Kennedy's guidance, many graduates of our school have achieved successful business careers. Because of her devotion to her work and to her students, we wish to extend our appreciation to her and to wish her health and happiness in her retirement.

To the Graduating Class:

To a teacher the temptation to give one last word of advice, one final lecture, one more bit of counsel is almost irresistible. We are only prevented from acting the part of such a foolish Polonius by the sad but certain knowledge that to a student the temptation to ignore any such wise words is even more irresistible. And thank heaven for that fact. Wise words, after all, urge the safe, the secure, the middle road. Wise words are the result of experience, of an unsuccessful attempt, of a failure. Wise words are for the middle-aged and old. Shall we tell you that those who play with fire will get burned? Shall we tell you not to aim too high or you will be disappointed? Shall we tell you that a bird in the hand is worth two in the bush? These are all wise words.

And yet, if you heed these words, if you take the safe, secure, middle road, then we have failed you. To try and to dare, to test and to experiment—these are the paths that the young should walk. When you succeed, we succeed. When you fail, we fail. In any case, whether you succeed or fail, you can be assured of our continued and constant interest and affection.

Congratulations and Best Wishes.

To the Members of the Class of 1963:

During the past four years your instructors have strived to help you develop your best talents, skills and abilities. Now the time has arrived for you to apply these traits where they will make the most effective contributions to society. Accept Longfellow's challenge by "doing what you do well, and doing well whatever you do."

I wish each and every member of the Class of 1963 the best of success in his future endeavors.

Robert T. Roy
Superintendent of Schools

To the Class of 1963

During your three years at D-R many of you have attained your goals and in so doing have made significant contributions to your school. In every case these goals have been reached because of your enthusiasm. I consider this enthusiasm to be the outstanding quality of the Class of '63. If you continue to be as enthusiastic in the future I predict great success for you.

Congratulations and Best Wishes.

Sincerely,
Joseph C. Harrington

Mr. Hathaway
at the
Mardi Gras

We, the members of the Yearbook staff, would like to express our special appreciation to Mr. Wilfred Hathaway for his part in making the Aurora a success. Mr. Hathaway has taken many photographs for us which we otherwise would not have been able to have. Thanks, Mr. Hathaway.

D.A.R.

This year the D.A.R. award has been given to Geraldene Lenney, who has contributed a great deal to the Senior Class of 1963. The senior girl who is chosen each year must possess outstanding qualities of service, leadership, patriotism, and dependability. Congratulations to this year's good citizen!

GOOD GOVERNMENT REPRESENTATIVE

Harold Hagopian was chosen by the members of the senior class to represent them at the State House on Good Government Day. We would like to extend our congratulations to Harry on a job well done.

History of the Class of 1963

On September 12, 1960, the third graduating class of Dighton-Rehoboth Regional High School met for the first time as the sophomore class in the Industrial Arts room, D-3, to await instructions concerning school procedure. The student council, having been considered of major importance to our school system, was established on a temporary basis as a summer student council enrolling the following sophomore class representatives: Judith Antunes, Frederik Eliason, Paul Gousie, George Hixon, Lynwood Lacy, Geraldene Lenney, Jane Mayer, and Rocky Wild.

Early in October our elections of class officers and permanent student council members were held. Frederik Elisason was elected president; Diane Tetreault, vice-president; Alice Perry, secretary; and Harold Hagopian, treasurer. In the student council are listed Dean Dewsnap, Frederik Eliason, Harold Hagopian, Geraldene Lenney, Jane Mayer, and Rocky Wild.

The long, narrow corridors of "old D-R High" soon became well acquainted with the enthusiastic cheers of our two lively cheerleaders, Lynda Johnson and Geraldene Lenny, as they spurred on to victory our members of the football team: Howard Ashworth, Frederik Eliason, Joseph Fleck, Harold Hagopian, Richard Pires, and Richard Ray all displaying that skill and brawn are necessary for a well-equipped squad.

Basketball is next on the list, with sharpshooters, Dean Dewsnap, Harold Hagopian and Richard Pires composing the center of action which brought our school a season of overwhelming victories.

Our girls' basketball team representatives were: Patricia Bacon, Jeanne Collard, Judith James (J.V. Captain), and Cheryl Silver. The competition was good, but they were better.

When February came, so did the Mardi Gras for which we voted Alice Perry and Francis McDermotte as our attendants in the royal court.

In spring, we gave two of the best to the baseball team. Richard Pires and William Webb showed all those upperclassmen how the game should be played.

Our school's first track team couldn't have gotten along without Frederik Eliason, Lynwood Lacy, Steven Mathewson, Dennis Perry, and Richard Roy. Their many repeated feats of physical endurance proved this statement time and time again.

Patricia Bason, Barbara Doe, Alice Perry, Jeanne Perry, and Marsha Ventura, along with managers Sandra Allie, Cynthia Compos, and Judith James, all contributed tremendously to an almost perfect softball season that year.

To the credit of the class of '63 during their sophomore year we have the girls' volleyball championship, won for us by the Sophomore II team of: Sandra Allie, Patricia Bacon, Jane Bickerstaffe, Jeanne Collard, Cynthia Compos, Judith Gardiner, Judith James, Sandra Leach, Ruth Lloyd, Hazel Pilling, and Marsha Ventura. For the highest percentage of participation in the G.A.A. intramural program, our class was presented the G.A.A. Plaque for girls' intramural sports.

As we began our junior year Fred Eliason was elected class president for the second consecutive year. With Judith James, elected vice-president, Jeanne Perry, secretary and Geraldene Lenney, our treasurer, the year promised to be most fruitful.

And so it was.

Howard Ashworth was vice-president, Mary Motta, treasurer, and Jane Mayer, secretary of the student council, as it went in to govern our student body once more. Our other representatives were: Frederik Eliason, Steven Marsden, and Rocky Wild.

With football season we got such heroes as: George Arnold, Howard Ashworth, James Cassidy, Philip Christopher, Lawrence Correira, Frederik Eliason, Joseph Fleck, Harold Hagopian, Lynwood Lacy, Lee LeForrest, Steven Marsden, and Richard Pires, as well as managers Kenneth Arnold and Dennis Perry. A lot of hard work went into the making of this team, and it showed every time they were on a field. We are all very proud of these boys.

And this pride was always reflected in the genuine enthusiasm shown by Lynda Johnson, Geraldene Lenny, Alice Perry, and Carol Read, our cheerleaders. They showed it also, when basketball season came around. Harold Hagopian, Richard Pires, and Richard Ray, could always be sure of hearing them as they demonstrated their vast skills on the basketball court.

Our band has brought many praises to our school, too. And I'm sure that the pretty addition of Cynthia Compos as majorette had none too little to do with these praises.

Dennis Perry and Richard Roy were the leading men on our cross country team that year.

The girls' basketball team came out ahead of the game again. But actually with Patricia Bacon, Judith James, Sandra Leach, Cheryl Silver, and manager Jeanne Collard on the team, how could they miss?

Mardi Gras time rolled around again, and this time with pretty Miss Alice Perry we sent Harold Hagopian to make the royal scene.

Richard Pires and William Webb were the junior representatives in the baseball team again.

And the track team prospered and grew with, the participation of: Nicholas Christopher, Lawrence Correira, Frederik Eliason, Harold Hagopian, Lynwood Lacy, Dennis Perry, Richard Roy, and manager, Kenneth Arnold.

The softball team had another great year with such sluggers as, Patricia Bacon and Marguerite Elting, and outstanding manager, Sandra Leach.

On the day of the Honor Society Assembly we were proud to have the following members of the class of '63 inducted for having shown outstanding academic records: Frederik Eliason, Judith James, Sandra Leach, Judith Gardiner, Janice Hagar, Geraldene Lenny, Jane Mayer, Mary Motta, and Rocky Wild.

We were not slighter last year in athletic awards either. With tennis champs Judith James and Marsha Ventura beating all the seniors, and Patricia Bacon being the first in our class to win the G.A.A. 700 club award, and volleyball championship won by: Judith Candelet, Deborah Day, Sharon Dean, Suson Dupouy, Geraldene Lenney, Jane Mayer, Mary Motta, Alice Perry, Jeanne Perry, and Cheryl Silver. We were again presented the G.A.A. Plaque for girls' intramural sports.

With our senior year came more fame and glory. Fred Eliason was president once again, and Mary Motta vice-president, with Cheryl Silver, secretary, and Geraldene Lenney, treasurer.

To the student council we ordained Rocky Wild president, and Jane Mayer, secretary. The other representatives were: Frederik Eliason, Marguerite Elting, Harold Hagopian, and Mary Motta.

Football teams have seen better days but never better men than those who met the challenges for our school this year. To these boys: George Arnold, Howard Ashworth, James Cassidy, Frederik Eliason, Harold Hagopian, Richard Pires, and managers, Dennis Perry, and Kenneth Arnold we owe a deep debt of gratitude for going out and doing their best for our school even when the chips were down.

Those same lively four were out there cheering the boys on again. Geraldene had been chosen captain and Alice, Carol, and Lynda were always by her side making plenty of noise.

Head majorette, Cindy Compos was doing her job well, too. She led the band in a true Falcon style.

Richard Roy was captain of the cross country team, with Paul Gousie always trotting close behind.

In this year's basketball team we had captain Harold Hagopian, and right hand man, Richard Pires, both giving their hearts and souls to make each game better than its preceding one.

Basketball is not foreign sport to the girls, either, as we have already been shown. Patricia Bacon, and Sandra Leach were co-captains this year with hard working Judith James and Cheryl Silver making all the rebounds and manager, Jane Siedentopf, taking down all the factual data of the games.

This year's Mardi Gras was, of course, the most beautiful of all. Our lovely queen, Alice Perry, and our handsome king, Harold Hagopian, were attended by the very splendid court of: Marquerite Elting and Howard Ashworth, Geraldene Lenney and Frederik, Mary Motta and Lynwood Lacy, and Dianne Tetreault and Richard Pires.

As baseball season rolled around again our old faithful were seen on the diamond again. Richard Pires and William Webb are the kind of die-hard school spirited boys that make a person proud to be a part of the class of '63.

A perfect softball season this year is all to the glory of: Patricia Bacon, Marquerite Elting, Jeanne Perry, manager, Sandra Leach, and of course Miss Jane Unsworth. Congratulations to all!

Our track team, too, had done much to further the name of our school. And many thanks, also, to the following as members of that group: Gerald Alves, Lawrence Correira, Frederik Eliason, Paul Gousie, Harold Hagopian, Lynwood Lacy, Richard Roy, Micheal Szala, and manager Dennis Perry.

There were four more girls inducted into the Honor Society this year. These also have maintained a high academic record over the past four years. They were: Jane Bickerstaffe, Elizabeth Randall, Cheryl Silver, and Marsha Ventura.

Other awards to our credit have been: the D.A.R. Citizenship Award to Geraldene Lenney; the Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow Award to Janice Hagar; and our representative at the Massachusetts State House on Good Government Day was Harold Hagopian. Mary Motta won the badminton championship and our tennis champs were the team of Patricia Bacom and Sandra Leach. The girls' volleyball championship still remains as a part of our class as it was won this year by the Senior I team of: Patricia Bacon, Jane Bickerstaffe, Jeanne Collard, Barbara Doe, Judith Gardiner, Judith James, Carol Lawrence, Sandra Leach, Hazel Pilling, Jane Siedentopf, and Marsha Ventura.

The G.A.A. 700 Club invoked the following members this year: Jeanne Collard, Cindy Compos, Sharon Dean, Judith James, Sandra Leach, Carol Lawrence, Alice Perry, Jeanne Perry, Jane Siendentopf, and Cheryl Silver. The Misses Bacon and Leach both were members of the 1200 club and Miss Bacon is the sole member of the 1700 Club to date.

The National Thespian Society also has members for the class of '63. Judith James was awarded the highest Thespian award for outstanding accomplishments over the past three years and her name is to be enrolled in the Thespian Hall of Fame. The other Thespian members are: Deborah Day, Barbara Doe, Frederik Eliason, Carol Read, and Marsha Ventura.

Class Prophecy

The year is 1996 on that well-known island of Falconia in the East Kickapooian Sea. The leader of the island, Peter Bacon Pan, is preparing for her weekly flight over the island to observe her land and subjects.

As Peter begins her take-off, she is joined by Tinkerbell Beal who quickly falls into pace with the fast moving Pan.

Their first pause is the home of Snow La Chappell White and her seven dwarfs: Dopey Cassidy, Sneezy Nelson, Grouchy Bickerstaffe, Happy Kimball, Sleepy Gilbert, Doc Hopkins, and Bashful Burrell who are entertaining Little Dupouy Flinders and Wee Willie Lawrence. After lengthy goodbyes, Peter and Tink go off to their next stop.

Upon passing over Yuk Yuk Bay, Peter by chance spies an unknown ship approaching her island. She swoops down, with Tink following closely, to investigate the invaders, coming to find that it is only a floating tub with the three Rub A Dubs, Larry Abrams, Lee LeForrest, and Eddie Reese.

Being assured of no danger, she and Tink proceed once again to the next home to be checked. The House of the Three Bears sits high on Miskitchiwan Hill with rose gardens surrounding the yard. As Peter approaches the horizon, she views someone racing through the trees. Why it is no other than Goldilocks Read. Knowing no harm has transpired, Tink and Peter land on the threshold of the home, only to be greeted by Mamma Lenny, Pappa Bob Johnson, and Baby Vaz, who are being sought by Yogi Bear Murch, Boo Boo Bear Botelho, and Huckle-Jeanne Perry. All seems to be well in hand at the Bear's house, so off Peter and Tink go.

The food supply on Falconia is kept on Ken and George Arnold's Beanstalk Farm with the assistance of Giant Hayward. The animals are kept in good working order under the guidance of Mother Goose Doe. Even though she has a little disciplinary problem with Little Crawford Blue, and Baa Baa Sheepy Shaw, Peter Rego Rabbit, Goosey Gousie Gander and Diddle Cat Krasnianski seem to keep them from getting out of hand. Peter and Tink seem quite tired at this point and decide to seek a place to rest and eat.

Unquestionably Mother Randall Hubbard accepts them graciously while Polly O'Connor puts the kettle on to the tales of Richie Rumpelstiltskin Pires. When all is ready, Hansel Hagopian and Gretel Elting come in to join in on the food prepared by the three blind mice: Sharon Dean, Kathy Sciarra, and Dianne Tetreault. The merriment is at its height when Peter and Tink decide that they must pay a visit to the Palace.

On the way Peter sees that Lynwood Wolf Lacy is chasing Little Red Riding Hood Linda Johnson, and must interrupt his travel to stop and save Little Linda and to reprimand Lacy for his bad manners. Peter then decides to have the three little kittens; Steve Tiplady, Mike Szala, and Gerry Alves watch Lacy and safely guide Little Linda to Grandma Farrell's house.

Now that Peter has delayed enough, he must hurry to the palace to the inauguration of the Queen of Hearts, Cindy Compos, the King of Hearts, Billy Webb, and the Knave of Hearts Kenny Medeiros. This is one of the large social events of the year, and Peter must attend. The Prince, Joseph Silvia, and the Pauper, Peggy Greaves, have sent all the invitations and everything seems ready for the gala event. Alice Cinderella Perry has the honor of crowning the Royal three, while Sleeping Beauty Wild acts as Flower Girl. The festivity ends with music played by the fiddlers three: Dean Dewsnap, Chuck Crafford, and Steve Mathewson led by Old King Brian Cole.

Peter Bacon Pan and Tinkerbell Beal stop at the top of Well Hill, just in time to see Fred Jack Eliason break his crown and Jill Mayer come tumbling after him. They are being cheered on by Little Brenda Blue and Alfred Shaftoe Rose. But all seems to be taken under control when Dennis of Oz arrives. So, on go Pete and Tink to the home of Jack Sprat Fleck and his wife Ann Holmes. When they arrive they find that Jack and Ann have guests from Creeky Hollow. Guess who are among the guests! Tommy Snooks Ashworth and Betsey Brooks Poole. Tommy and Betsey have brought with them a trio which most people seem to be dying to meet. They are the three stooges: Holly Moe Hagar, Larry Goff, and Curly Allie. After the performance Simple Simon Hathaway and Pie-man Pilling, who work for Jack and Ann, serve the guests. Sukey Revard ran to the kitchen to take the kettle off and returned before he was missed. Tink and Pete noticed someone sitting in the corner and wondered what was the matter. It was only little John Horner Abrams though!

All of a sudden they heard a loud noise and everyone ran to the windows. It was only Little Miss Muffet Cornell eating her curds and whey. Well, Pete and Tink decide that they must leave if they intend to finish their journey. They were just walking out the door when Jon Mouse Olson ran up the clock as it struck 1:00.

As the twosome were flying over a winding road, they noticed Crooked Marsden and his crooked cat walking along. They waved and flew on. Then Tink noticed poor Little Bo Peep Reberio who was crying. They flew down and asked her if she had lost her sheep again, but were astonished to find that she was only crying because Georgie Porgie Hixon had left her and was now chasing Mary Mary Quite Contrary Motta. They assured Little Bo Peep Reberie that she would meet someone new and soon forget about Georgie. Just as they were getting ready to glide upward again, Aladdin Collard came by with her magic lamp and let Little Bo Peep Reberio have a wish on it. Appearing from the lamp was no genie but at least he cured Little Reberio's loneliness. It was Tom the Piper's Son Gendron.

Approaching Wockinippi Forest, Peter hears the distant cry which encourages them to investigate. Tink finds the shrill noise to be Humpty Ventura falling to the ground with the ill-aid of Mad Hatter Leach. Tink also sees Daffy Down Dilly Gardiner rolling hysterically in the grass. Wondering what the commotion is all about, Mary Dion and her little Lamb go rushing to the scene of the accident, finding their effort to no avail, for Jack Be Nimble Roy has brought the glue.

After leaving the past incident, Peter beholds a daring rescue opening before her eyes. Little Tucker Corrier had found Mrs. Peter McQuirk locked in her pumpkin shell and Pinocchio Day was boring a hole through the lock to free Mrs. Pumpkin Eater.

One last important stop was left before Peter and Tink would wend homeward, the Old Woman Janice Hagar in the Shoe. Friendly Woman Hagar had four children: Judy Trudy James, Mandy Landy Sandager, Cheryl Shuff Silver, and Muscles Bright. These four ambitious girls always made supper for Peter and Tink when they would visit. After the appetizing dinner was served and eaten, Peter and Tink wearily flew homeward to find Charlie Desautels Brown and Lucy Carroll awaiting them at the front door.

And as the slow falling sun sinks into the horizon over that long remembered Island of Falconia, Tink and Peter wave farewell to Dishie Siedentopf and Spoony Simas as Cow Munroe jumps over the moon and rocks Heumes in the Moon, sending him flying into space.

Class Will

We, the third graduating class of Dighton-Rehoboth Regional High School, being of sound mind and body, do ordain this to be the last will and testament of the Class of 1963. We leave our sincere gratitude to the staff and faculty members who have patiently aided us in our quest for knowledge.

JOHN ABRAMS wills his informative notes to the underclassmen girls to John Pugliese.

JERRY ALVES wills his ability to slam his locker door to Donna Wolfenden.

GEORGE ARNOLD leaves to become a millionaire. Any contributions to the cause will be greatly appreciated.

KENNY ARNOLD leaves to Bob Doe his ability to attract many girls at dances.

HOWIE ASHWORTH wills his acting career to any unfortunate junior.

SUE CARROLL wills her plush Bohemian garrett in Greenwich Village to anyone who thinks he can afford to pay the rent.

JIM CASSIDY sadly leaves Sharon M. behind.

PAT BACON leaves the parallel bars to Donna Tschirch.

ELAINE BEAL leaves her ability to stay out of trouble to Doreen VanDyke.

JANE BICKERSTAFFE wills her ability to make friends with underclassmen to Marvin Lacy.

KATHY BOTELHO leaves her candy to Mr. O'Donnell.

LYNDA BRIGHT wills to her sister, Chris, her excess height.

JEANNE COLLARD wills her seat in college physics to Jerry Hunter.

CINDY COMPOS leaves Richie C. behind—but unavailable to girls.

LEONA CORNELL leaves her broken-down typewriter to Mrs. Martins and Mrs. Kennedy.

CHARLIE CRAFFORD leaves for the nearest girls' college he can find.

HENRY CRAWFORD wills the quiet horn on his car to Mr. Harrington.

BRIAN DAGGETT leaves his love for Chevrolets to Leo Dupuis.

DEBBIE DAY leaves her many scarfs to any junior who might have a stiff neck next year.

SHARON DEAN regretfully leaves her short skirts to Mrs. Smith.

DENNY DESAUTELS leaves his voice to any Vokealizer who may need it. Lots of luck.

DEAN DEWSNAP submits his superior lab technique to Eunice Atwood, who will probably need it.

BARBARA DOE reluctantly leaves the presidency of the James Frates Fan Club to Peggy Simmons. Dêo grâtias.

SUSAN DUPOUY leaves her space in the girls' room to anyone who can squeeze through the door.

FRED ELIASON wills a gavel to Mr. Frates to maintain order over Jay Wargot, John Chellel, and the rest of the "rabbly" Latin 4 class.

PEGGY ELTING hasn't decided whether to leave her position on the girls' softball team to Charlie Hagopian or Glenn Field.

BARBARA FARRELL leaves two more years at D.R. to Mike Fleck and Everett Gonsolves.

JOE FLECK leaves the school, period!

JUDY GARDINER wills the middle part of the corridor to Mr. Wood.

TOM GENDRON leaves his mermaids to Sam Delsignore.

MARTIN GILBERT leaves, promising to build a trust fund for a jungle gym in the chemistry lab.

VIRGINIA GOFF leaves a bag of Fritos to Raymond Gousie to eat in period E study.

PAUL GOUSIE leaves his good marks in Spanish to Bobby Benevides.

PEGGY GREAVES happily leaves her senior math class.

HOLLY HAGAR wills a year's supply of gum to Mr. Wood.

JANICE HAGAR leaves her democratic procedure to Mr. Grover.

HARRY HAGOPIAN respectfully bequeaths his dirty sweat socks to the new physical education teacher.

GEORGE HIXON leaves to Pete Dean, all the grease and sawdust in the shop.

ALMON HOPKINS leaves his ability to walk the halls and not get caught to Connie and Liz.

BILLY HUMES leaves his ability to make mistakes to Raymond Shea.

WALTER HAYWARD leaves his go-kart to Mrs. Smith in case her English Ford doesn't run.

ANN HOLMES wills to Donna Gailes her short-hand skill.

JUDITH JAMES leaves her blonde wig and Southern accent to anyone who wants to prove that blondes have more fun.

LYNDA JOHNSON wills her admiration for teddybears to Mr. Texiera.

ROBERT JOHNSON sadly leaves his seat near all the girls in economics.

RICHARD KIMBALL leaves his quietness to Marvin Lacy, who needs it.

LORRAINE LACHAPELLE leaves to Rita Karppinen her ability to write love poems.

LEE LEFORREST leaves his O.K. to Willie Hesketh.

CAROL LAWRENCE wills her good English marks to Andrew Jennings.

SANDRA LEACH leaves her proficiency to climb a rope to Janice Blanchette.

GERALDENE LENNEY and CAROL READ leave their hall roaming and invisible passes to two innocent looking junior girls.

STEVE MARSDEN sadly leaves Carolyn Woodcock, but not for good.

STEVE MATHEWSON wills his Randy Boat Shoes to anyone who wants to look collegiate.

JANE MAYER leaves the job of chairman of the Senior Prom to anyone who is crazy enough to take it.

DONNA McQUIRK wills her eye make-up to Janice Blanchette.

KENNY MEDEIROS leaves his ability to always be late to John Hesketh.

MARY MOTTA leaves her many chores to any unfortunate junior.

WALTER MUNROE leaves his infallible ability to do math to Dawnne.

SANDY MURCH wills all the poppies in the world to Mr. Wood.

JOYCE NELSON leaves her soundless, germless sneezes to Mrs. Smith who seemed to enjoy them very much during the past year.

KAREN O'CONNOR leaves to Debbie Heywood her "dead-eye" at archery and faded but treasured gym suit.

JON OLSON leaves his ability to get out of sweeping the shop floor to Bruce McCracken.

ALICE PERRY, SANDIE ALLIE, and JEAN PERRY leave together—as usual!

DENNIS PERRY wills a package of Spearmint gum to Mrs. Smith.

HAZEL PILLING and DEBBIE POOLE will their seats in study hall to two quiet juniors so that Mr. Dywer will once again be able to regain his patience.

RICHIE PIRES wills his photogenic legs to Mr. Hathaway and Mr. Lussier.

EDDIE REESE leaves his loud mufflers on all his cars to Antone Roderick.

JOHN R. REGO leaves a bunch of carrots.

BRENDA ROGERS wills her quiet ways to Carol Baker.

ALFRED ROSE leaves to Andrew Jennings his ability to "twist."

RICHIE ROY leaves JOYCE a "Not Available" sign.

JUDY SANDAGER, JANET REBEIRO, and CLAIRE DION will their reservations on the absent list to some senior next year who just loves publicity.

KATHY SCIARRA wills to Mrs. Martins an "A" in conduct.

PEGGY SHAW leaves her worn-out gym suit to the trash can.

JANE SIEDENTOFF wills her height to Lynn Condry.

CHERYL "SHUFFLE" SILVER wills the distinction of having an odd nickname to Lynn "Horsie" Condry.

ANN SIMAS leaves her happy ways and her ability to get into and out of trouble easily to her sister, Irene.

MIKE SZALA wills his stamina to stay awake in Mr. Wood's English class to anybody who needs it. P.S.—Everybody needs it.

STEVE TIPLADY leaves his love for TF's to Tim Zucchi.

ALFRED VAZ leaves his love for Mercurys to Joe Cornell.

MARSHA VENTURA leaves her ability not to make the basketball team for three years to any underclassman girl with perseverance.

BILL WEBB wills his talent for misjudging line drives to Don Schler.

ROCKY WILD leaves her unfinished physics project to Armen Casperian.

BETTY RANDALL leaves to Mrs. Smith a bag of empty candy wrappers and dirty napkins for next year's ad-selling excursions.

To all our teachers we leave a summer of rest and our sincere thanks for putting up with us for three years.

To the new seniors we leave a hall of your very own including a girls' room and a boys' room. Try to keep it quieter than we did.

As we race through these corridors to be on time for our last classes, we realize that these last three years have been the best years of our lives and that we will truly miss Dighton-Reheboth Regional High School.

TO OUR GRADUATES

I extend my sincere congratulations and best wishes to the 1963 graduating class of the Dighton-Rehoboth Regional Vocational High School.

You have established a high standard of undergraduate loyalty and zeal which has pleased your faculty very much.

Be true to the ideals which your teachers have tried so hard to inculcate, remembering always that—attitude, initiative and enthusiasm are most important on your pathway to success.

I shall always have happy memories of my pleasant associations with you.

Goodbye, good luck and God bless you.

Track had its first winning season at D-R, sporting a record of four wins, three losses, and one tie. The biggest win of the season was a 52 to 34 upset decision over highly favored, arch rival Apponequet High School. The D-R tracksters gave an all out effort as they nailed down third place in the Narry League meet on Memorial Day.
